BEAVERS EVADES ARREST.

Again Indicted. He Defies Government to Apprehend Him.

New York, July 25.—George W. Beavers, former superintendent of the division of salaries and allowances in the post office department at Washington, is still in the borough of Manhattan, "attending to his own private business," according to his lawyer, although a second indictment against him and former Representative Driggs has been brought in by the federal grand jury. No effort, so far as could be learned, has been made by District Attorney Youngs to arrest Mr. Beavers. Mr. Driggs, it is understood, will make a second surrender to this additional indictment and plead not guilty before Judge Thomas in the circuit court.

The finding of the second indictment against Beavers was a surprise to some of those most familiar with the affairs of the district attorney's office in Brooklyn. It is not expected that Beavers will follow the example of Driggs and surrender himself even after this second indictment.

"We know where our client is, and so does District Attorney Youngs," said Mr. Seabury of counsel for Beavers. "If Mr. Youngs wants him he can send over here and arrest him. We have received an anonymous letter telling us that the Brooklyn authorities intend to seize Mr. Beavers unaware over here and hustle him over the bridge, where a warrant may be served. We cannot conceive of such a lawless thing being attempted by Mr. Youngs."

Famine in Raw Cotton.

London, July 25.—Replying to a question in the house of commons, Gerald Balfour, president of the board of trade, said 700 cotton factories in Lancashire were working on short time and 300,000 operatives were affected. This was due to the deficiency of raw cotton. The question of cotton growing in the British empire, in order to create a supply outside that of the southern states of America, was receiving careful consideration, and the board of trade was prepared to give any practicable help to those interested in the matter.

Another Blank Cartridge Victim. Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 25.—On July 3 Miss Jessie Brader, aged nineteen, of Plains, near here, accidentally shot her self in the hand with the wad from a blank cartridge in a pistol. The wound began to inflame and lockjaw set in. The young woman has just died in horrible agony. Miss Brader's death makes the eighth victim from lockjaw in Wilkesbarre and vicinity since July 4.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup seems especially adapted to the needs of the children. Pleasant to take; soothing in its influence. It is the remedy of all remedies for every form of throat and lung disease.

Ten thousand demons gnawing away at one's vitals couldn't be much worse than the tortures of itching piles. Yet there's a cure. Doan's Ointment never fails.

Burdock Blood Bitters gives a man a clear head, an active brain, a strong vigorous body—makes him fit for the battle of life.

Croup instantly relieved. Dr. Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil. Perfectly safe. Never fails. At any drug store.

Are you about to build? If so see that your builder's contract has a clause providing that the structure shall be erected by union labor which will insure you of good work and a job completed without delay. Per order Union 481, Carpenters and Joiners of America. A. B. Lane, secretary.
